Notes
B, I, or BI	San Francisco, which prides itself in letting the voters decide issues of importance to the City, is behind the times and out of step when it comes to filling vacancies to local office.	11 16 5
	In California, if a vacancy occurs for the U.S. Senate, the Governor's appointee must face the voters within two years. Likewise, if a vacancy occurs for the U.S. Congress or for the California legislature, voters elect the successor within twelve months.	12 13 12 4
	In San Francisco, however, appointees to City-wide office and for Supervisor may serve for up to 29 months, and to the Community College and School Boards for up to 48 months before they must face the voters.	10 14 13
	With the exception of a vacancy for Mayor, which is filled by the Board of Supervisors, all other vacancies are filled by the Mayor.	15 9
	From 1996 to 1999, the Mayor appointed six members to the Board of Supervisors – a majority of the old Board.	13 7
	This tended to limit open debate at the Board on the issues of great importance to San Francisco, and undermine the independence of the Board as a co-equal branch of government.	14 10 6
	The voters last Fall, stated, loud and clear, that they wanted to see balance restored to City government, and to make the Board more accountable to the voters.	14 13 1
	Proposition C would do just that.	6
	In most cases, this Charter Amendment would limit the time to one year that appointees would serve without standing for election. The appointees would face the voters at elections already scheduled, resulting in no additional cost to administer elections.	14 10 13 2
	Proposition C would restore balance to City Government, put San Francisco in step with the rest of the State, and shift power to fill all elective offices back to the voters where it rightfully belongs.	11 17 6
	Vote Yes on Proposition C.	5
