11 provider of hospital services based in San Francisco; and,

12 WHEREAS, CHW is committed to the promotion of public / private partnerships whose 13 goal is to enhance and protect the provision of health care services, particularly for the 14 medically underserved; and,

15
16 WHEREAS, Saint Francis and St. Mary's hospitals have been engaged with the San 17 Francisco Department of Public Health (The Department) in identifying and evaluating 18 potential areas of collaboration; and,

19 WHEREAS, The Department and the hospitals have established collaborative 20 relationships that have improved access to health care services through increased primary 21 care referrals and integration with the Department's Lifetime Clinical Record, among other 22 projects; and,
23
24
25

1 WHEREAS, CHW has developed a leading patient financial assistance policy to 2 address increasing health care costs and protect access to care for people who find it difficult 3 to pay for health services; and,

4 WHEREAS, CHW has developed an innovative tool, the Community Needs Index
5 (CNI), to accurately identify community-wide health needs so that resources can be directed 6 to improve health in order to avoid unnecessary hospitalizations; and,

7 WHEREAS, The Department and the hospitals have signed a formal Memorandum of 8 Understanding (MOU) to promote further joint service planning that could lead to expanded 9 relationships focused on securing safety-net services to vulnerable populations; now, 10 therefore, be it

11
12 RESOLVED, That CHW, Saint Francis and St. Mary's hospitals are to be commended 13 for their commitment to working with the Department to protect and enhance the provision of 14 health care services to vulnerable populations, and therefore be it

15
16 FURTHER RESOLVED, That other hospital service providers within the City and 17 County of San Francisco be encouraged to emulate these efforts and engage with the 18 Department in developing innovative and long-lasting public – private partnerships vital to the 19 maintenance of critical health care services.
