[California Seismic Safety Commission]

Resolution urging California Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger to withdraw his proposal to eliminate funding for the California Seismic Safety Commission.

WHEREAS, With passage of the Seismic Safety Commission Act in 1975, the Seismic Safety Commission was established to advise the Governor, Legislature, and state and local governments on ways to reduce earthquake risk; and,

WHEREAS, The Commission was formed in response to a need to provide a consistent policy framework and a means for coordinating on a continuing basis the earthquake-related programs of agencies at all governmental levels and their relationships with elements of the private sector involved in practices important to seismic safety; and,

WHEREAS, The Commission is responsible for managing California's Earthquake Hazards Reduction Program, reviewing seismic activities funded by the state, providing a consistent policy direction for earthquake-related programs for agencies at all government levels, proposing and reviewing earthquake-related legislation, conducting public hearings on seismic safety issues, recommending earthquake safety programs to governmental agencies and the private sector and investigating and evaluating earthquake damage and reconstruction efforts following damaging earthquakes; and,

WHEREAS, Recently, Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger proposed to eliminate funding for the California Seismic Safety Commission; and,

WHEREAS, In the wake of the recent failure of FEMA to respond effectively to the victims of Hurricane Katrina, the Governor's proposal to eliminate funding for emergency preparedness bodies such as the California Seismic Safety Commission is not appropriate; now, therefore, be it
