

1 [Resolution Declaring October 2 International Day of Nonviolence and Spinning Wheel
2 Birthday.]

3
4 Resolution declaring October 2 International Day of Non-violence and, in accordance 5 with the wishes of Mohandas K. Gandhi commemorating his date of birth, October 2,
6 as the Spinning Wheel Birthday.

7
8 WHEREAS, On June 15th, the United Nations marked October 2nd as the 9 International Day of Nonviolence; and

10 WHEREAS, October 2 is also the birth date of the late Mohandas "Mahatma" K.
11 Gandhi; and,

12 WHEREAS, Mahatma Gandhi, during his lifetime, was offered the honor of an official 13 holiday for his birthday, but preferred instead that the date be designated the "Spinning 14 Wheel Birthday"; and,

15 WHEREAS, The Spinning Wheel became the symbol of India's resistance to British 16 Rule as a tool of economic opportunity that would assist the most disenfranchised in Indian 17 society with a means to meet one of society's most basic needs – clothing; and,

18 WHEREAS, The use of the spinning wheel was a nonviolent societal effort - part of his 19 Constructive Programme for India - which allowed everyone in society to contribute and 20 participate in the emancipation from foreign rule and poverty; and,

21 WHEREAS, On October 2nd, San Franciscans will be invited to consider what would 22 be the equivalent of a spinning wheel today in our city by considering what product or service 23 could anyone, especially the most economically marginalized, provide themselves or to 24 anyone else that is an essential need to everyone whether it be in the realm of food, clothing,
25 shelter, health care, education or other essential human needs; now, therefore, be it
