[Urging the California State University system to develop uniform hiring policies to ensure

Resolution urging the California State University system to develop uniform hiring policies to ensure workforce diversity.

WHEREAS, The Bureau of State Audits recently found that the California State University (CSU) system lacks a uniform hiring policy for professors and managers; and,

WHEREAS, The lack of a uniform policy has resulted in search committees that do not include women or minority members and has hampered CSU's efforts to create a diverse workforce; and,

WHEREAS. The lack of diversity has resulted in a workforce that does not represent California's diverse population, decreasing the quality of education provided at CSU; and,

WHEREAS. This has resulted in discrimination against minorities in the hiring process and has left CSU exposed to unnecessary legal action; and,

WHEREAS, Since 2002, 92 employment discrimination charges have been filed against CSU, costing the state more than $7.6 million in damages and attorney fees; and,

WHEREAS, The University of California has developed uniform hiring policies which have helped create a diverse workforce campus-wide; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors of the City and County of San Francisco urges the California State University system to develop a comprehensive uniform hiring policy to be implemented system wide; and, be it

FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors urges the California State University system to require that all search committees for professors and administrative staff include women and minorities; and, be it

FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors directs the Clerk of the Board to send a copy of this resolution to the Chancellor and Board of Trustees of the California State University System.
