7
8 WHEREAS, The Irish American Democratic Club ("Club") of San Francisco is 9 dedicated to raising a voice on issues crucial to San Francisco voters, while continuing to 10 explore ways to enhance influence as Democrats with Irish roots and values by working to 11 advance the peace process in Ireland; and

12 WHEREAS, It is this endeavor in which the Club begin to honor the birthday of the late 13 President John Fitzgerald Kennedy my making it a memorial holiday; and,

14 WHEREAS, This would be a day to honor his memory as the first Irish American of the 15 United States; and,

16 WHEREAS, The Club wishes to honor President's Kennedy's compassion for the 17 disabled, his principled stand on civil rights and other hallmarks of his tragically shortened 18 administration, and to remember that he helped to bring an end to long-standing 19 discrimination against Catholics holding high office; and,

20 WHEREAS, President Kennedy inspired many people, especially the young, to get 21 involved in government through such programs as the Peace Corps; and

22 WHEREAS, By creating a special day in his memory, people can be reminded of his 23 inspirational words and of his compassion and spread his message to the generations of 24 today and tomorrow; now, therefore, be it
