Golden Gate Bridge bobble marks anniversary

Release of keepsake coincides with date construction started on iconic span 91 years ago

By James Salazar
Examiner staff writer

An iconic San Francisco landmark is getting its own bobblehead — or, in this case, bobble-bridge.

The National Bobblehead Hall of Fame and Museum on Friday released a limited-edition bobble of the Golden Gate Bridge, which marked 91 years since construction on the bridge began.

The museum also celebrates every Jan. 7 as National Bobblehead Day.

The collectible's release was news to the Golden Gate Bridge, Highway and Transportation District, which operates what director of public affairs Paolo Cosulich-Schwartz called an "international icon and local treasure." He said the agency was "delighted to hear" about the replica.

"We hope today's announcement inspires even more people to come visit the Golden Gate Bridge and see all that San Francisco and the Bay Area have to offer," he said, noting that the bridge sees more than 10 million annual visitors and 110,000 vehicles crossing it daily.

Measuring approximately four inches tall by seven inches long, the bobble features a replica of the bridge atop a

COURTESY NATIONAL BOBBLEHEAD HALL OF FAME AND MUSEUM

Measuring approximately four inches tall by seven inches long, the bobble features a replica of the bridge atop a resin base, which is intended to offer a water-like effect reminiscent of the San Francisco Bay. One side of the base reads "Golden Gate Bridge," with "San Francisco, California" on the other.

"The iconic Golden Gate Bridge is one of the great landmarks of not only San Francisco, but the entire world," said

Phil Sklar, National Bobblehead Hall of Fame and Museum co-founder and CEO. "The Bay Area has been a popular tourist attraction thanks in large part to the spectacular bridge."

"We are honored to produce the first bobble of one of the most famous bridges in the world," he said.

Each bobble is individually numbered to 1,937 — honoring the year the bridge first opened to the public — and only available through the Bobblehead Hall of Fame's online shop. They are priced at $30.

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF WING TSUNG CHAN CASE NO. 23-PRO-00937
To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of: WING TSUNG CHAN

A Petition for Probate has been filed by HYM BOK CHAN AND BONITA CHAK YEE CHUI in the Superior Court of California, County of SAN MATEO.
The Petition for Probate requests that HYM BOK CHAN AKA BONITA CHAK YEE CHUI be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.
The Petition requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.)
The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.
A hearing on the petition will be held in this court on 1/31/2024 at 9:00 A.M. in Dept. 2B Room N/A located at 400 COUNTY CENTER, REDWOOD CITY, CA 94063.

If you object to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.
If you are a creditor or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

You may examine the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.
