15 Be it ordained by the People of the City and County of San Francisco:

16 Section 1. Findings.

17 (a) The City’s Regional Housing Needs Assessment creates a state-mandated 18 obligation to construct a minimum of 46,000 affordable units by 2030, comprised of at least 19 20,867 units for very low-income households, 12,014 units for low-income households, and 20 13,717 units for moderate-income households.

21 (b) Existing affordable housing programs target funding for very low-income and low-22 income households, thereby creating a “missing middle” funding gap for middle-income and 23 workforce households.
24

1 (c) Middle-income earners such as teachers, healthcare workers, first responders, and 2 public sector employees are vital to the economic and social success of the City, but many
3 middle-income households struggle to find affordable housing in San Francisco.

4 (d) The City suffers from a deficit of affordable housing for many of its residents,
5 including its middle-income residents, despite constructing and preserving more affordable
6 housing per capita than any other city in California.

7 (e) On April 30, 2019, the Board of Supervisors (“Board”) adopted its Resolution No.
8 215-19 to approve the FY 2020-29 Capital Plan and formally recognize housing affordable to 9 low- and moderate-income San Franciscans as integral to the City’s public infrastructure and 10 regular capital planning process.

11 (f) The lack of housing affordable to low- and moderate-income essential workers
12 impacts the City’s economic health, and its resiliency in the face of disaster or other 13 emergencies if first responders cannot afford to live in the City.

14 (g) Market-rate development, which is based on private equity capital’s rates of return,
15 is volatile and tied to economic cycles, and demands rents that leave out middle-income
16 workers from the housing market.

17 (h) The City has an urgent need to address this growing housing affordability crisis for 18 the health, welfare, and safety of its inhabitants.

19 (i) The City is authorized under Section 103 and related provisions of the Internal 20 Revenue Code to issue tax-exempt debt for capital projects with a governmental purpose,
21 including for rental housing projects.

22 (j) The City may also issue tax-exempt debt pursuant to Section 145 and related
23 provisions of the Internal Revenue Code, and loan the proceeds to qualified non-profit entities
24 to acquire, develop, construct, rehabilitate, improve, repair, and equip safe and sanitary 25 affordable housing.

1 (k) The City supports the creation of additional preferences for occupations essential
2 to our local economic and cultural fabric, including but not limited to healthcare workers, first 3 responders, public sector and non-profit workers, and artists, and intends to explore the 4 creation of such preferences.

5
6 Section 2. Chapter 43 of the Administrative Code is hereby amended by adding Article
7 XV, consisting of Sections 43.15.1 through 43.15.28, to read as follows:

8 ARTICLE XV:
9 WORKFORCE HOUSING AND AFFORDABLE MIDDLE-INCOME REVENUE BOND LAW

10
11 TITLE 1 -- GENERAL PROVISIONS AND DEFINITIONS

12
13 SEC. 43.15.1. TITLE.

14 This Article XV may be cited as the Workforce Housing and Affordable Middle-Income Revenue
15 Bond Law.

16
17 SEC. 43.15.2. PURPOSE.

18 The Board of Supervisors hereby finds and declares that it is necessary and essential, serves a
19 critical public purpose, and is a municipal affair, for the City to address its middle-income and 20 workforce affordable housing crisis by issuing bonds to finance the acquisition, development, 21 rehabilitation, and construction of housing for middle-income and workforce individuals and 22 households. The City can promote such interests pursuant to this Article XV without adversely
23 affecting areas outside the City and without conflicting with efforts by the State of California to solve
24 problems of statewide concern.

25

1 SEC. 43.15.3. FULL AUTHORITY.

2 This Article XV is full authority for the issuance of bonds by the City for the purposes described
3 herein, and other purposes reasonably related and subordinate to the purposes described herein.

4
5 SEC. 43.15.4. ADDITIONAL AUTHORITY.

6 (a) This Article XV shall be deemed to provide a complete, additional, and alternative 7 method for taking the actions authorized thereby, and shall be regarded as supplemental and additional
8 to the powers conferred by other laws, including the City's ability to issue debt pursuant to Article
9 I of this Chapter 43, and loan the proceeds thereof to an organization of the type described in 10 Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The issuance of bonds under the provisions of this 11 Article need not comply with the requirements of any other law applicable to the issuance of bonds.

12 (b) The purposes authorized hereby may be effectuated and bonds may be issued for any
13 such purposes under this Article XV notwithstanding that any other law may provide for such purposes
14 or for the issuance of bonds for like purposes and without regard to the requirements, restrictions,
15 limitations or other provisions contained in any other law.

16 (c) This Article XV shall not be construed to limit any power the City may have under any 17 other State or local law, including the City's ability to issue debt pursuant to Article I of this
18 Chapter 43, and loan the proceeds thereof to an organization of the type described in Section
19 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Nothing contained in this Article shall be construed to 15 to Charter Section 16.110.

16
17 SEC. 43.15.8. AFFORDABILITY REQUIREMENTS.

18 Residences financed under this Article XV shall meet all the following affordability
19 requirements:

20 (a) The Sponsor, or any other owner of a Residence that is not the City, shall enter into a
21 regulatory agreement with the City for the life of the Residence to restrict occupancy of units to tenants
22 with household income not to exceed 120% of AMI, and monthly rent not to exceed one-twelfth of 30%

24 corresponding rent maximums to be lower than the preceding sentence.

1 (b) Initial rents for qualified households shall not exceed the lesser of: (1) 30% of one-
2 twelfth of the applicable annual income limit, or (2) at the election of the Sponsor, either (A) 15%

9 will be made available to households meeting the income restrictions applicable to the Residence upon 10 voluntary vacancy of each such unit. Any existing tenants who elect to income-certify after the 11 acquisition of a Residence will have their rent adjusted to the applicable affordability levels. If a 12 Residence is subject to Administrative Code Chapter 37 (the Residential Rent Stabilization and

23 specified part of the Revenues and the moneys and assets authorized in this Article XV to be pledged or 24 assigned to secure payment of bonds. Such Revenues, moneys, or assets shall be the sole source of 25 repayment of such issue of bonds and shall constitute a special fund for purposes of Section 18 of

1 Article XVI of the California Constitution. Bonds issued under the provisions of this Article XV shall
2 not be deemed to constitute a debt or liability of the City or a pledge of the faith and credit of the City
3 but shall be payable solely from specified Revenues, moneys, and assets. The issuance of bonds shall 4 not directly, indirectly, or contingently obligate the City to levy or pledge any form of taxation or to 19 retirement of such bonds.

20 (b) Bonds may be issued as serial bonds, term bonds, finance leases, installment payment
21 obligations, loans, notes, certificates of participation, or pass-through certificates, or any combination

22 the City;

23 (g) Investment of Revenues and the proceeds of bonds;
24

1 (h) Specification of the acts or omissions to act which shall constitute a default in the duties
2 of the City to holders of such bonds, and providing the rights and remedies of such holders in the event
3 of default, including any limitations on the right of action by individual bondholders;

4 (i) The appointment of a corporate trustee to act on behalf of the City and the holders of its
5 bonds, the pledge or assignment of loans, deeds of trust, mortgages, leases, subleases, sale contracts,
6 and any other contracts to such trustee, and the rights of such trustee;

7 (j) The procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bondholders may be 8 amended or abrogated, the amount of such bonds the holders of which must consent thereto, and the 9 manner in which such consent may be given; and

10 (k) Any other provisions which the Board of Supervisors by ordinance may deem

14 Any pledge of Revenues or other moneys or assets pursuant to this Article XV shall be valid and 15 binding from the time such pledge is made. Revenues, moneys, and assets so pledged and thereafter
16 received by the City shall immediately be subject to the lien of such pledge without any physical 17 delivery thereof or further act; and the lien of any such pledge shall be valid and binding as against all
18 parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract, or otherwise against the City, irrespective of 19 whether such parties have notice thereof. Neither the ordinance, nor any indenture by which a pledge is 20 created need be filed or recorded except in the records of the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors.

21
22 SEC. 43.15.21. NO PERSONAL LIABILITY.

23 Neither the members of the Board of Supervisors, the officers or employees of the City, nor any 24 person executing any bonds shall be liable personally on the bonds or be subject to any personal 25 liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

1
2 SEC. 43.15.22. PURCHASE OF BONDS BY CITY.

3 The City shall have the power out of any funds available therefor to purchase its bonds. The 4 City may hold, pledge, cancel, or resell such bonds, subject to and in accordance with agreements with 5 the bondholders.

8 The City may issue bonds under this Article XV for the purpose of refunding any bonds then 9 outstanding.

10
11 SEC. 43.15.24. VALIDITY OF BONDS.

12 The validity of the authorization and issuance of any bonds is not dependent on and shall not be 13 affected in any way by any proceedings taken by the City for the approval of any financing or the 14 entering into of any agreement, or by the failure to provide financing or enter into any agreement, for 15 which bonds are authorized to be issued under this Article XV.

20 This Article XV, being necessary for the welfare of the City and its inhabitants, shall be liberally
21 construed to effect its purposes.

22
23 SEC. 43.15.26. OMISSIONS NOT TO AFFECT VALIDITY OF BONDS.

24 Any omission of any officer or the City in proceedings under this Article XV or any other defect
25 in the proceedings shall not invalidate such proceedings or the bonds issued pursuant to this Article.

1
2 SEC. 43.15.27. ARTICLE CONTROLLING.

3 To the extent that the provisions of this Article XV are inconsistent with the provisions of any 4 other ordinance, the provisions of this Article shall be deemed controlling.

5
6 SEC. 43.15.28. SEVERABILITY.

7 If any part of this Article XV or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held
8 invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect any other part or 9 application of this Article which can be given effect without the invalid part or application; and to this 10 end the provisions of this Article are declared to be severable. The Board of Supervisors hereby 11 declares that, regardless of such a holding, it would have adopted and passed this Article and each
12 title, section, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase, and word therein, and application thereof, 13 unaffected by such a holding.
