7
8 WHEREAS, Sister Vish-Knew, aka Ken Bunch, has made significant contributions to 9 San Francisco as a founder in 1979 of The Sisters of Perpetual Indulgence, which has grown 10 from its home base in San Francisco into a worldwide spiritual, community service, activist, 11 and artist organization offering sanctuary to its communities with houses in 60 U.S. cities and 12 14 countries; and

13 WHEREAS, Sister Vish-Knew is a pioneer for LGBTQ+ rights and a long-time advocate 14 through her work for marginalized and often overlooked members of society; and

15 WHEREAS, On Easter weekend in 1979 Sister Vish-Knew and two friends donned 16 nun's habits and took to the streets of San Francisco, playing and posing for photos in the 17 first-ever appearance of a group of "drag nuns" that has since grown into a unique LGBTQ+ 18 organization with global reach; and

19 WHEREAS, Sister Vish-Knew and the Sisters of Perpetual Indulgence have been 20 fierce activists and fundraisers of millions of dollars for queer and transgender rights, LBGTQ
21 youth, HIV/AIDS advocacy and education, prison reform, immigration, and the environment; 22 and

23 WHEREAS, In 1982 Sister Vish-Knew and the Sisters produced a dog show in the 24 Castro which was one of the first ever fundraisers for people with HIV/AIDS; and

1 WHEREAS, Sister Vish-Knew produced the first Halloween in the Castro in 1990 with 2 The Sisters and event partner Community United Against Violence (CUAV), which became a 3 world-famous celebration, attracting as many as 100,000 attendees, and raising hundreds of 4 thousands of dollars for HIV/AIDS charities and under-funded LGBTQ organizations; and

5 WHEREAS, In 1993 at the "Creating Change Conference", Sister Vish-Knew made the 6 first ever demand for inclusion of transgender issues and speakers at the March on 7 Washington and Stonewall 25th anniversary; and

8 WHEREAS, Sister Vish-Knew has represented the Sisters and San Francisco across 9 the globe, participating in the LifeBall in Vienna, Austria, leading an international contingent of 10 Sisters to Shanghai, China for Shanghai's 6th annual Pride celebration and receiving the 11 honor of Grand Marshall of Prague Pride in the Czech Republic along with Sister Roma; and

12 WHEREAS, Sister Vish-Knew was an activist prior to the founding of the Sisters, 13 producing the first Midwest Gay Pride Conferences at the University of Iowa in 1974, 14 becoming the second person in the United States to apply for a same-sex marriage license in 15 1976 and attending the White Night Riots in San Francisco following the murder of Harvey 16 Milk in 1979; and

17 WHEREAS, In addition to producing the Sisters' famous Easter Sunday celebrations in 18 Dolores Park, Sister Vish-Knew is also a longtime resident of the Mission Dolores 19 neighborhood; now, therefore, be it

20 RESOLVED, That in order to celebrate the life of Sister Vish-Knew and her many 21 contributions to the City and County of San Francisco and LGBTQ+ people around the world,
22 there shall be an honorary naming of "Sister Vish-Knew Way" on Alert Alley between Dolores
23 Street and Landers Street; and, be it

24 FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors requests the Municipal 25 Transportation Agency to erect street signs on Alert Alley between Dolores and Landers

1 Streets indicating both the honorary and the existing names of the street, either on a single 2 sign or on separate signs, with the honorary name "Sister Vish-Knew Way" in smaller letters
3 above or beneath the existing name; and, be it

4 FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Department of Public Works is directed to add the 5 honorary street name to its official list of Commemorative Street Names in accordance with 6 Public Works Code, Section 789 et seq.
